OLD BUSINESS

Do we need a meeting before the end of the year?

After Discussion it was decided that no meeting was necessary.

INWARD OUTREACH

The Outreach Committee is considering various issues. This is an ongoing process that will be reported to the Council at future Meetings. We need the Clubs to let us know if there are any issues they would like us to consider.

OTHER OLD BUSINESS

S.T.A.R.S. M.C. would like to know what does a Club need to do to be reconsidered for Membership? The Club needs to go back to the beginning and make the request to AMCC.

NEW BUSINESS

LOCATION OF THE 145TH A M C C MEETING

The Long Island Ravens will host the 145th A M C C Meeting during their 12th Anniversary Weekend on March 19 – 21, 2004

VOTE FOR MEMBERSHIP

The Harbor Masters of Portland, Maine are presented by Entre'Nous, STARS M C, and The Long Island Ravens for consideration into AMCC. The Harbor Masters has been around since 1982. They will be celebrating their 21st Anniversary during the weekend of November 7 – 9, 2003. They currently have 15 full active members along with 27 Associates. Their Home Bar is The Blackstone Bar in Portland, where they do a Bar Night on the 3rd Saturday of each month.

The Harbor Masters have been voted in as our newest AMCC Club. Congratulations.

NOMINATION FOR MEMBERSHIP

S.T.A.R.S. M.C., Bucks M.C. & Empire City M.C. are sponsoring The Hartford Colts for entry into the AMCC. There was a long discussion about this second go round. In the end, it was determined that the sponsoring Clubs will send a status report to the AMCC Officers. The AMCC Officers will ascertain a sense from the Clubs as to whether or not The Hartford Colts should be brought up for a vote at the Meeting in Long Island, or wait until the Meeting that follows. The reason behind this is, we would like to know that all issues addressed at this meeting have been met to the satisfaction of those involved.
