The President called on the Secretary to read each section of the proposed Article VII of the Articles of Agreement. Each section was read in turn and the following changes were offered:

Article VII, Section B--

Delete the entire sentence which reads: Sanctioned events may last from one day/night to seven day's duration.

It was moved by Faucon and seconded by the Thunderbolts to approved the Sanction Calendar as listed above. This motion passed without dissent.

The President then called for nominations for the coveted Torrid Tuber. The following clubs were nominated: Bucks "for their magnificent out-presenting presentation at Keelhaul '81"; Lost Angels "for cancelling their run"; Spuds "for late 1980 run pins"; Vikings "inasmuch as Boston is a very good home for the Torrid Tuber." Ballots were distributed and the results were: Vikings-7, Bucks-6, LA's-5, Spuds-3. The Vikings puzzled as to how to take back this 'trophy' on the plane. It had been decorated for the occasion by Entre Nous with blinking lights and tinsel.

The Secretary said that the AMCC had to file its 1981 Annual Report with the DC government. The cost would be $6.00. He also asked whether the Council wished to keep its current corporate name of AMCC '76 or to have the '76 dropped. The Vikings seconded by Wheels moved to pay the $6.00. This motion passed without dissent. Excelsior moved and was seconded by the Companions to retain the current name of AMCC '76. This motion passed without dissent.

The President asked that the Council decide where the 67th meeting would be held. Entre Nous, the Druids, and the Warriors had all offered to host a meeting. By Council vote, it was decided to hold the 67th Meeting during the Druid Spring Sabbat Run, April 16-18, in Washington, DC.
