FREE RUSTY RIDERS COURSE (NON-RIDING)

With the new riding season for motorcyclists, Empire State Motorcycle Safety Education will be hosting a Motorcyclists Tune Up of information for motorcyclists to refresh themselves of skills and awareness need to have a safer riding season for 2017. This will be a non-riding course (information only) that will review topics such as proper cornering, braking, general riding skills, group riding, street strategies, road awareness and more. Many riders have been dormant for the long winter and some refresher and new information to review could make our riding safer for the season to come. The classes are also open to all drivers so they can become better informed on the needs of motorcyclists for awareness with Sharing the Road. This is a FREE Program.

Program presented by - Empire State Motorcycle Safety Education Program

Course Presenter - Don Gomo; President of ESMSEP, Safety Skills Columnist for American Iron Magazine and NYS MSF RiderCoach
