UNFINISHED BUSINESS

No action taken on any items listed on Unfinished Business from '91 & '92.

Motion by C. Savage, seconded by J. Brusca to remove from the table nominations and election of Road Captain. Carried.

Mark Wind withdrew his name from consideration; Dan Magee was elected Road Captain by acclamation.

Charles indicated he would contact Bob Browne to determine how to proceed with Christening/Picnic flyers.

Proposed amendment to the constitution of ECMC was read for the second consecutive time by Acting Recording Secretary. Discussion ensued. Final reading and vote at meeting of April 7, 1993.

President Arnold and newly elected Road Captain Magee to meet with Dugout management to discuss possibility of holding Christening there.

No action on any other items listed as unfinished business '93.

NEW BUSINESS

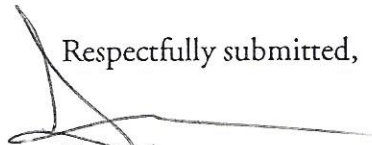

Motion by M. Wind, seconded by M. Flythe to participate in All Club Carnival, a benefit for Valinor Farms, scheduled for Saturday, April 17, 1993 at Spike. Carried. Method of participation to be determined.

GOOD AND WELFARE

Boots and Saddle has initiated a Sunday beer blast w/ reduced prices from 5 to 8 p.m.
Alex Muriello sends regards and regrets from Florida.
Paul Martin sends regards and regrets from Vermont.
Bob Browne entered White Plains Hospital on Monday for tests. We all hope all is well and that he is home soon. While in the hospital, he can be reached @ (914) 681-1451.

Officers' Reports:

President:

New club patches are in. The large "colors" patches are $15.00 each, and the smaller patches are $2.50 each, or 5 for $10.00.

"We Rode" T-shirts were distributed to those present who participated and had not yet received their shirts.

If you have not already turned in your "Inventory of Assets" form indicating what club owned property is in your possession, please do so immediately. This will help us ascertain what purchases may be required.

Vice-president:

The Vice-president had no report.

Road Captain:

Everything is pretty well set for the Picnic. Paul M. will be in charge of re-stocking beverages. Everybody should remember that we are ALL officially on clean-up duties. If it needs attention - attend to it! Breakfast table service for the Spartans will be conducted by John, Paul J., Ken L. and Mike. We need more people to volunteer for Saturday night table service. So far, José has volunteered.

The Board of Directors of Valinor Farms has informed us that the following new rules regarding the use of the facility will be put in effect shortly:

- No smoking in the Dining Hall
- No non-prescription drugs will be permitted in the public areas of the facility
- No unsafe sex practices will be permitted in the public areas
- No solo use of the pool/spa facilities will be permitted. You must be accompanied in order to use the pool or spa

Recording Secretary:

The Recording Secretary had no report.

Corresponding Secretary:

Newsletters were received from the Griffins, Vanguards and Vikings. We also received materials from Heritage of Pride regarding the Gay Pride March and celebration.

AMCC Representative:

The L.I. Ravens MC were approved for AMCC membership by a 20-1 vote. For details regarding the vote, please contact Joe directly.

Cycle MC has released their sanction for June 12, 1993. This date is now open and available.

Two plaques were presented to José in recognition of his service as AMCC President. Congratulations José!

Committee Reports:

30th Anniversary:

José indicated that he will be unable to continue to serve as the chairperson of the 30th Anniversary committee. A new chair is now needed, as well as persons to coordinate individual events. Please think about what you can do to help.

30th Anniversary Run:

We need to see a stronger commitment from the membership for this event. We voted to do it, and now we need volunteers to help make it happen.

30th Anniversary Bike Tour:

We have some good ideas regarding area (The Adirondacks). We need someone to coordinate this event.

30th Christmas Party:

A site still needs to be found.

Old Business:

Membership/Business Cards:

Cards will be designed incorporating the 30th year theme.

Sewing Bee:

We need a coordinator for the sewing bee, as well as a site and date.

Bike Christening:

There are 8 bikes for christening so far. Members who can help decorate at the Dugout are requested to arrive around 4:00 pm.

Keelhaul Cocktail:

All is set. There will be 6 ECMC members in attendance: José, Mel, John, Joe, Dan and Keith.

Gay Pride '93:

As of Tuesday, there were 14 male riders registered for the march. The deadline for your application is May 26, 1993.

Hillside Campground Bike Weekend:

Bike Weekend at Hillside is July 24 & 25. Two sites have been reserved.

Bar Night with Riders MC in Philadelphia:

Bar Night with the Riders MC will be at "Rear Entry" in Philadelphia on July 3, 1993, with a picnic to follow on July 4 at Valinor Farms. Proceeds from these events will benefit Valinor Farms, Inc. If you need flyers about the event for hanging up in your favorite hangout, contact Jeff.

New Business:

There was no new business conducted.

Good and Welfare:

From Dan:

Dan ran into Lee Lawrence and received a card with his latest address and information.

Adjournment:

Motion to adjourn was made by Bob, seconded by Mel, and approved at 2:25 pm.

Respectfully Submitted,

Bob Browne,
Recording Secretary
