A special thanks of appreciation is extended to all of the Entre Nous Potpourri 73 cast. Most of the cast is performing for the first time, but their interest and dedication has added that necessary spark. To all who worked behind the scenes, you are not in the spotlight, or the limelight, but without you there would be no light. Thanks so very much and keep up the good work. A special thanks also to Bob White's 1270 for the cooperation and toleration.
